A busy week!

It was lovely to see you all at our welcome BBQ last Thursday night.

I look forward to seeing at our Parent Information Night on Tuesday evening. During the presentation I will be sharing how our classroom will run throughout the year, my plans for our learning this year and how you can assist at home and in the classroom.

Congratulations to last week's class award winner, Dan Ross. He received this award for being courageous during swimming lessons.

Congratulations also to Marissa Ross and Brooke Schaefer who have been elected by our class as our SRC reps for this semester.

Don't forget that we our class is leading worship on Friday, February 22. We hope to see you there.

Have a great week
Mandy ☺
